Domestic Economy.

PICKLED PEACHES.—Take a gallon of good vinegar and add 4 pounds of sugar, boil it for a few minutes, and remove any scum that may rise; then take peaches that are fully ripe, rub them with a flannel cloth, to get off the down upon them, and stick three or four cloves in each; put them into a glass or earthern vessel, and pour the liquor upon them boiling hot; cover them up and let them stand in a cool place for a week or ten days, then pour off the liquor, and boil it as before, after which return it boiling to the peaches, which should be carefully covered up and stored away for future use.

PEACHES IN BRANDY.—Wipe, weigh and carefully select the fruit, and have ready a quarter of the weight of powdered white sugar; put the fruit into a vessel that shuts closely, throw the sugar over it, and then cover the fruit with brandy; between the top and cover of the pot, put a piece of double cap paper; set the pot into a sauce-pan of water till the brandy is quite hot, but not boiling; put the fruit into a jar, and pour brandy upon it, and when cold, put a bladder over, and tie it down tightly.

PICKLED TOMATOES.—Take small, smooth tomatoes, not very ripe; scald them until the skin will slip off easily, and sprinkle salt over them. After they have stood 24 hours, drain off the juice, and pour on a boiling hot pickle, composed of one pound of sugar to every quart of vinegar, and two teaspoonfuls each of cinnamon and cloves. Drain off the liquid, scald it, and pour it on them again, every two days for a week, and they will require no further care.

BAKED FRUIT PUDDING.—One quart of good sweet milk; one bowl of good sweet apples, pared and sliced thin; put the apples in the milk and let them boil; then stir in corn meal, sufficient to make a thin batter. Butter a large tin basin and dip in the batter; add one egg well beaten, and a teaspoonful of ginger; bake in a moderate oven till done. It can be made of dried sweet apples, washed and chopped fine, and soaked in water enough to cover them over night. In this case the water and apples are added to the milk. If sufficient sweet apples are used it will need no other sweetening.

THE TREASURY NOTE QUESTION IN A PRACTICAL SHAPE.—The action of the San Francisco Gas Company in repudiating in toto the U. S. Treasury Notes and refusing to receive anything but gold and silver from their customers, has been the subject of no little unfavorable comment, and many have wished to see the question settled by a tender of notes in payment of their bills. Yesterday the matter came to a head, through the action of a cigar dealer on Third street, near the end of Jessie, who, when called on for his bill, tendered notes in payment. The collector was ordered to receipt the bill—as the Company did not wish to lose it entirely—but to at once shut off the gas and remove the metre. The collector and a number of the Company's workmen went there last evening and the bill was paid in notes and receipted. They then attempted to remove the metre, but were forbidden to do so by the tennants of the store, and also by the owner of the building. An encounter then ensued, in the course of which the cigar dealer was roughly handled and had his clothing torn, but maintained his cause and prevented the metre from being taken away. A policeman was called on by the leader of the Gas Company's men to remove the metre, with the assurance that the Company would see him protected, but the officer not caring to render himself liable to an action for damages in case he got off without a bullet through his head very properly declined to do more than to prevent a breach of the peace; and so, for the present the cigar dealer is ahead. A large crowd was attracted to the spot by the altercation, and there was no mistaking the popular sentiment, which was evidently against the Company. As the man had paid his bill in full, owed the Company nothing, and was on his own premises, it is hard to understand by what authority the Company could enter his house, and shut off the gas, unless it has absolute power to do as its directors see fit, and the people at large are without civil rights or remedies of any kind.—S. F. Call.

BRILLIANT EXPLOIT OF DODGE'S MOUNTED RIFLES.—A dispatch to a New York paper, dated at Suffolk, Va., Sept. 4th, says in regard to a late exploit by Federal troops:

A detachment of Dodge's New York Mounted Rifles was dispatched upon a scout on Monday, under the command of Major Wheelen. The party proceeded about thirty-five miles from this place, and when about twelve miles west of South Mills they came across a company of rebels on their way toward Richmond. Major Wheelen made such a disposition of his force that he succeeded in capturing the whole command, consisting of two commissioned officers and 111 privates, 28 wagons, and 2 sulkies. The rebel company had with them along the route 38 negroes, who were tied and destined for Richmond.—This morning the prisoners were marched into town, and placed under a guard from the Third Regiment of New York Volunteers. They were conscripts, intended to fill up old regiments.

AN ARMY OF SIX HUNDRED THOUSAND MEN.—The Journal of Commerce thus undertakes to give an idea of what an army of 600,000 men is: "Assuming the men to fall into line, single rank, they will show a front of 23 miles. Should the Generalissimo wish to review his army, his charger must go on a smart trot, and it would require over half a day. This respectable army, formed in hollow square, would present a field of bayonets three miles on each side, enclosing 5,760 acres. Allowing two pounds of provisions per diem for each man, they consume 600 tons a day, and drink 150,000 gallons of water."

SATURDAY MORNING OCT 11 1862

The War

We often hear it said that we are fortunately not affected by the terrible war now raging in the country But this is not strictly true At present we do not fear the march of hostile forces over the State—the ravages of hostile secesh guerrillas, who spare neither friends or enemies, property or sex—still scarcely a family can be found in Oregon or a man without family who does not feel the horrors of this war We can rarely go into a circle of a few individuals, some one of whom will not tell us that he had a brother relative or friend, who fell in such a battle—carrying desolation and sorrow into his home circle—and others will say that they have brothers relatives and friends now in McClellan's, Buell's and other armies, every day exposed to death in battle or by the various sickness and casualties of war that follow in the train of armies

The wails of woe heard on the battle fields from the wounded and the dying, are again taken up in their distant homes, and again are continued by brothers sisters and friends on this far off coast Yes, we here feel the horrors of this cursed war—inaugurated to extend and perpetuate human slavery, and which will doubtless be continued by its authors until that curse of our nation shall be swept from the land

Years have we contended for the faithful carrying out of the Constitutional bonds with the South Sure we are that her rights were never more sacred than when this war was commenced; but now she has severed the last claim that she had upon the people of the North, and she must abide the end

God in His holy Providence has decreed the destruction of human slavery by the very men who regarded its perpetuation as the great object of their existence—as the great summum bonum of all they desired or wished for in life We can say with the followers of the false prophet, "ALLAH IS GREAT"

Important Order.

The following is a copy of an order issued by Gen Wright, commanding Department of Pacific, to the Postmaster of San Francisco, at this place by last night's mail—suppressing certain treasonable sheets published in this State from the United States mail

HEAD QUARTERS, DEPARTMENT OF PACIFIC,
San Francisco, Cal, Oct 3, 1862

SIR —I have to request that you will give instruction, excluding the following named newspapers from the United States mails and post offices, also prohibiting their transmission by any Express Agency or Company viz:

The Albany Inquirer, Albany, Oregon, the Democratic Register, Eugene City Oregon, and the Evening Advertiser, Portland, Oregon

Very respectfully, your ob't serv't,
G WRIGHT,
Brig Gen, U S Army, commanding
SAMUEL H PARKER,
Postmaster, San Francisco Cal

RELIEF OF O C PRATT —We notice that a bill has been introduced in the Legislature for the relief of O C Pratt, who claims a demand against the State for the sum of $5,039 44, and interest for seven years at six per cent, which is alleged is due him as the assignee of the heirs of Ewing Young, who emigrated to this country from New Mexico at an early day and died in Yamhill county, leaving several thousand dollars worth of property and solvent debts, which was taken and used by the Provisional Government of the Territory and which has never been returned We know but little of the merits of this case but from a printed circular sent to us by Mr Pratt, we learn that proper legal claims have been established by suit in the Supreme Court and that a judgement stands upon the records of that Court against the State for the amount claimed, with however, a denial to compel the State Auditor to draw a warrant upon the Treasury in consequence of a subsequent act suspending the payment of this debt at will of the Legislature Mr Pratt claims that he has waited about long enough on the will of the Legislature and hopes that this body may now will the claim to be paid We doubt not the investigation of this matter will be made at this session, and if it shall appear that the claim is just and ought to be paid, we shall expect that the order will be made for that purpose, otherwise an act of repudiation altogether

GENEOLOGICAL CHART —We have received a geneological chart prepared by Mr H B Parker, of the members of the present Legislative Assembly, which we design publishing as soon as the same can be set in type, which perhaps will be by Monday next This chart gives the names of the members counties represented place of nativity State emigrated from, age married or single occupation postoffice address and number of years residence in Oregon

OHIO —General Robert C Schenck has received the Union nomination for Congress in the Third District of Ohio His competitor is the notorious Clement Vallandigham, who is stumping the district The issue is thus directly made between Union and secessionism,

Adjourned to 7 o'clock P M

Persons without teeth have been held to be exempt from the draft on account of their not being able to bite a cartridge In consequence of this, a good many fellows, it is said, have had their front teeth pulled But now an order from the War Department prescribes that the toothless shall not be exempt but subject to draft for the artillery service Good enough for them

The Chicago Times—one of the most decided Democratic journals in the country—says To stand by the President at this juncture is to stand by the Constitution and the Union

Among the other virtues of a Mr Taft, of Mendon who recently died at the age of 72 it is said that he never told a lie never was in a city, never rode in a railroad car, and never cheated a man out of a cent Pity he ever died

THAT'S THE CHEESE — That's the cheese Almost everybody has heard this London cockney expression which simply implies — that is the very thing the ne plus ultra of what we want The original of the saying is said to be as follows and as in these war times our forces may sometimes get out of ammunition it may be well to apprise commanding officers how they may obtain potent substitutes from the commissary stores The incident narrated occurred in an engagement with Admiral Browne of the Buenos Ayres service

"What shall we do sir?" asked the first Lieutenant "we've not a single shot aboard —round grape canister double headed—all are gone

"Powder gone?" asked Coe

"No sir got lots of that left"

"We had a d—d hard cheese a round Dutch one for dessert at dinner to day do you remember it?" asked Coe

"I ought to I broke the carving knife in trying to cut it sir"

"Are there any more aboard?"

"About six dozen we took 'em from a drogher"

"Will they go into the eighteen pounders"

"By thunder Commodore! but that's the idea I'll try 'em" cried the first Luff

And in a few minutes after the fire of old Santa Maria (Coe's ship) which had ceased entirely was reopened and Admiral Brown found more shot flying over his head Directly one of them struck his mainmast and as it did so shattered and flew in every direction

"What the h—ll is that they are firing?" asked Brown But nobody could tell

Directly another one came through a port and killed two men who stood near him then striking the opposite bulwark burst into flinders

"By Jove! this is too much—this is some new fangled Paixhan or other; I don't like 'em at all!" cried Brown; and then as four or five more of them came slap through his sails he gave the order to "fill away" and actually backed out of the fight receiving a patting broadside of iron-hard Dutch cheese as she retired

That was the "cheese and no mistake"

The new iron clad frigate Ironsides is a great success—her machinery perfect, and her rate of speed very great

From China.

SAN FRANCISCO, Oct. 3.—The ship Lotus, [illegible] from Hongkong, arrived last night [illegible] to August 10. On the 27th July [illegible] typhoon swept over Hongkong, Macao, Canton, and Whampoa, destroying 50,000 [illegible]ons. Canton was the centre of the [illegible]. Every vessel on the river was destroyed, including the Imperial fleet, sixty [illegible] and an immense number of trans[illegible] soldiers. In the harbor of Macao 100 of sugar and other boats were lost. The whole fleet of coast boats were destroyed.—The American ships John Bell and Washington were blown ashore. The typhoon lasted [illegible] hours. It is unprecedented in the recollection of the Chinese.

The bark Yankee has arrived from Honolulu with dates to the 15th September. The [illegible] son of King Kamehameha is dead. The Hawaiian Minister has resigned. R. C. Wyllie has been renominated for Minister of [illegible] Affairs.

[illegible] is considerable movement in the rice [illegible], consequent upon the loss of the four ships in Chinese waters. Sales at auction of 5000 @ 4[illegible] cents.

At Yeddo, Japan, an attack was made on the British Legation by natives. The British [illegible] were killed. The intention, it is supposed, was to intimidate the foreign ministers and [illegible] them leave. H. M. S. Reward has gone to Yeddo to protect the foreign ambassadors.

SPECIE ON THE ATLANTIC SIDE.—The total export of the precious metals from New York since January of the present year amounts to $40,482,000, more than $10,090,000 of which [illegible] absorbed in the transfer of funds belonging to foreigners or other parties whose [illegible] in regard to our political affairs [illegible] the movement. A portion of this [illegible] now returning by every mail for [illegible] in American securities. The San Francisco Prices Current says: "Noting the very large treasure export, [illegible] of the Eastern cities are gradually [illegible]ing specie. The supplies derived from California, and brought out of private [illegible] by the inducement of a high premium, [illegible] than sufficed to meet all the foreign [illegible]

BROWNLOW'S ADVICE.—Parson Brownlow [illegible] writing a letter to the loyal Government, in which he advises them as follows:—"Enter your protest against every other Brigadier and Major-General in our army being a candidate for the Presidency during the existence of this war, and, as a consequence, [illegible] his course in that direction. Enter your most solemn protest against one-half of the members of the Cabinet looking to the [illegible], and shaping the conduct of the war accordingly."

[illegible] Patent Lever Trusses.—These instruments are recommended to the public as the best ever [illegible]. The principle is new and different from any [illegible] Pad works over a Knuckle, giving it a circular [illegible] UPWARD motion, thus being able to support [illegible] with half the pressure required by other [illegible]. The pain consequent upon heavy pressure is [illegible]. [illegible]ments will not rust, and are the lightest, most [illegible] most cleanly of all others. They can be [illegible] pleasure. Coughs.—The sudden changes of our climate are [illegible] of PULMONARY, BRONCHIAL, and ASTHMATIC AFFECTIONS. Experience having proved that simple remedies often act speedily and certainly when taken in the early stages of the disease, recourse should at once be had to "Brown's Bronchial Troches," or Lozenges, let the Cold, Cough, or Irritation of the Throat be ever so slight, as by this precaution a more serious attack may be effectually warded off. PUBLIC SPEAKERS and SINGERS will find them effectual for clearing and strengthening the voice. See adv[illegible]

The Medical and Surgical Institute [illegible] L. J. CZAPKAY is already received in a position which places it, as well as its proprietor, far above the assaults of envy and professional malice. In the schools of Europe, the highest prizes are often awarded to practitioners [illegible] a talent of medical science, and they occupy, with [illegible] lofty position in the profession. Ricord [illegible] an example, a shining light among the professional stars of his age in Europe, and Dr. Czapkay has followed him in this country; as a proof of which, the [illegible] College of Medicine complimented him with a [illegible] and the honorary ad eundem degree, selecting this [illegible] field of operation, although qualified as a graduate of the University of Pesth, and late Chief Surgeon of the Hungarian Revolutionary army, for more extended labors. Dr. Czapkay has bent his earnest attention to the cure of chronic and private diseases, in which he has become so great [illegible] that he is now regarded as the LEADER in this branch of his profession throughout the United States, and his portrait and biography are published as matter of interest to their readers in the most exclusive journals. The doctor's offices are at his Medical and Surgical Institute, on [illegible] street, corner of Leidesdorff, nearly opposite the buildings of the the Pacific Mail Steamship Company, San Francisco. We ask particular attention of our readers to the numerous certificates of remarkable cures, in another column of this paper. Persons not wishing to lose time in [illegible] please enclose $10 in their letters, and they [illegible] attention to their cases. Address, L. J. CZAPKAY, M. D., San Francisco, Cal. june26d&w1y

LAIRD, WEBSTER & CO'S
FAMILY
SEWING MACHINES
ARE UNEQUALLED BY ANY FOR BEAUTY AND SIMPLICITY OF CONSTRUCTION
—AND—
Efficiency in Working.

A GOOD SEWING MACHINE
SHOULD BE WELL MADE, simple in its construction, and easily kept in order; should make a tight [illegible] stitch, alike on both sides of the material, and should sew any and all materials that can be sewed.

It should be able to use cotton, thread, or silk directly from the spool, and to sew from coarse to fine, and from thick to thin, with rapidity, and without changing the tension. It should also be able to make the tension greater or less, on both the under and upper threads, and with uniformity; and should have a straight needle; curved ones being liable to break.

The needle should have perpendicular motion—this is absolutely necessary for heavy work.

It should be able to bind with a binder, hem with a hemmer; should stitch, fell, run and gather; and should be always ready to work.

It should be capable of using the same size thread on both sides of the work, and of using different colored thread or silk, above or below, to correspond with any two colors of cloth to be united.

It should be able to make a long or short stitch, and to fasten off the seam, and commence sewing tightly at the first stitch, and to run easily, and make but little noise.

It should have a wheel-feed; no others are in constant contact with the work.

It should not be liable to get out of order; neither should it require a screw-driver or wrench to set the needle.

It should not be liable to oil the operator's dress.

It should not form a ridge on the under side, or ravel.

The undersigned are General Agents for the general supervision of these unrivalled machines for Pacific States and Western Coast of Mexico.

DR. BAKER'S
PAIN PANACEA.
Is composed entirely of healing gums, and vegetable oil and herbs. It is perfectly safe for the most delicate to use. I can most sincerely say that I have never known any, however delicate, to be injured by it in the least. I will continue to ask the afflicted, who have not used it, to try it for the following diseases: If they are not satisfied with it [illegible], the money will be cheerfully returned by the agent where the medicine is for sale.

If you have pain in the stomach or bowels, try a dose of Pain Panacea internally. Bathe externally over the parts affected, and it will at once restore the proper action and relieve the pain.

If you have a Bruise or Wound, bathe it well with the Pain Panacea [illegible] times a day. It will relieve the pain, will take out all the poison, and heal the wound in a short time.

If you are suffering from Neuralgia or Rheumatic Pains, apply the Pain Panacea freely, and take a dose of it internally morning and night; it will not only cure the pain, but will remove the cause of the disease.

If you have the Dyspepsia, and your food distresses your stomach after eating, take a dose of Pain Panacea after each meal.

If you have Cankered or Sore Mouth or Throat, apply the Pain Panacea to the affected parts, and gargle the mouth or throat three or four times a day.

If you have the Diarrhea, or a relaxed state of the bowels, take a dose of Pain Panacea, and they will soon be restored. If you have a painful swelling, bathe the parts freely, and it will soon relieve pain, and the swelling will be reduced.

If you have severe tooth-ache, apply the Pain Panacea on a piece of cotton and bathe the gum at the same time; it will stop the pain instantly.

If you have pain in the Breast, Side, Back or Kidneys, bathe the parts affected morning and night; at the same time take a dose of Pain Panacea internally.

If a Mother has a caked breast, apply the Panacea as hot as it can be borne.

If you feel chilly or cold, as though you were going to have a fever, take a dose of Panacea.

If you have a wound, cut, or galls upon your horse, apply the Pain Panacea; it will take out all the inflammation and heal the sore in a short time.

A Moment of Passion.

This story, or something like it, has been told before, but we wish to tell it in our own way. And the lesson it teaches will bear many repetitions.

Mr Ellis was a man of kind and tender feelings, but quick tempered and impulsive. He had a son ten years old, a bright, handsome, generous hearted boy, who inherited his father's impulsive character. A quick tempered father and a thoughtless, impulsive boy are apt to get into sharp collision at times, and it was so with Mr Ellis and his little son. The father's commands were not always obeyed; and as the father had some strict notions in regard to obedience, punishments jarred amid the household harmonies rather more frequently than a wise regard to justice and humanity would have approved. The hasty temper and foregone conclusions of Mr Ellis made his discipline oftener cruel than reformatory. A single instance will illustrate our meaning, and that is the story which we wish to relate.

It was a pleasant summer afternoon, and Willie Ellis came out from his mother's hands clad all in white linen, and looking as sweet and pure as innocence itself. The house stood only a short distance from a river, on the banks of which the boy was fond of sporting, and in the ooze of which he sometimes soiled his garments in a sad way, much to the discomfort of himself and his mother.

"Willie," said Mr Ellis as the boy passed out, "where are you going?"

"Only to play," answered the roguish mouth.

"To play—where?"

"With Eddie Wheeler, down at his house."

"Did your mother say that you might go there?"

"Yes sir."

"Very well, all right then. But mind one thing—you are not to go down to the river. Yesterday you came home with your clothes soiled and wet. I won't have that again. So remember that I've said, "don't go to the river."

"Not if Mr Wheeler lets Eddie go?"

There was a half-pleading look in the bright, young face.

"No," was the imperative answer, "I've said don't go to the river, and if you disobey me, I shall punish you severely."

Willie's step had lost some of its airy lightness when he moved on again.

"Mind that you don't forget!" called the father after him.

The boy heard, but did not look back or make any response, which a little annoyed Mr. Ellis, who had grown very sensitive on the score of strict obedience.

"It wouldn't at all surprise me," he said to himself, "if he were to come home in an hour all covered with river mud. He is so thoughtless or self willed—I hardly know which. But children must be made to obey. That's the discipline to enforce at all hazards; and if he disobeys me this time, he will have cause to remember it as long as he lives."

Something had gone wrong with Mr Ellis, and he was in a sterner mood than usual. Moods of mind, oftener than a sense of justice, influence our conduct with reference to others. We act from a state of feeling more frequently than from considerations of right.

Mr. Ellis went away from home soon after, and returned in an hour. As he stood at the door, and glanced around for a moment before entering, he saw Willie in a shocking plight, wet and soiled from head to foot, slink through the garden gate. The boy had noticed him and was endeavoring to get into the house without being seen. But at the door where he had hoped to enter unobserved, he encountered a stern and angry face. A few quick strides had bro't his father there.

"So you have been to the river, after all that I have said."

The boy lifted a pale face and frightened eyes.

"Didn't I tell you not to go to the river?"

A vice-like grip was already on his soft little arm.

"Yes sir," came through the quivering lips.

"And you went after all?"

"But father —"

"Not a word, sir! I told you not to go to the river, didn't I?"

"Eddie Wheeler —" The poor child tried to explain.

"I don't want to hear about Eddie Wheeler. He can't excuse your disobedience. Come, sir, we'll settle this business," and he dragged the white-faced boy after him, up stairs to the garret, and taking down a rod, swung it in the air above his head.

"Oh, father! Don't! Let me tell you, please!"

A look, almost like despair, was in the boy's face. Mr Ellis remembers it to this day; and will remember it until the day of his death.

"I don't wish to hear any excuses," was replied, as the rod came down upon the shrinking child, with a stroke that made every nerve quiver with pain.

"Oh, father!"

Once more the mild, appealing look, so full of agony, was lifted to the stern face above him, but lifted in vain. A second cruel stroke fell, and then a rain of strokes, until the father's sense of pity, intruding between anger and unforgiving justice, stayed his arm. He went down stairs, and left the boy lying in the middle of the floor, as he had dropped from his hand—motionless as if life were extinct. He met the pale, suffering mother below. She loved the boy tenderly, and had felt every smarting blow, but he passed her without a word. She had seen Willie as he encountered his father at the door, and understood the meaning of this heavy punishment. Mr Ellis went out into the porch to breathe the freer air, and cool the sudden excitement under which he had been laboring. As he shut the door behind him, in a kind of instinctive effort to separate himself from a painful scene, he stood face to face with Mr Wheeler. A hand grasped his in a quick strong pressure.

"It was a brave act, sir! He's a noble boy. Where is he?"

"I don't understand you," said Mr. Ellis, looking bewildered.

"Didn't he tell you?"

"Tell me what?"

"How he sprung into the river and saved my little Eddie's life."

"I heard nothing of it."

"No Money About the House."

There is probably no one class of citizens in our State so completely [illegible] that [illegible] as it regards money as are the "Cultivators of the Soil," and yet they are at the same time the most independent and the most "wealthy."

A person unacquainted with the singular and unwise management of the great majority of farmers, would suppose they were all as poor as a "church mouse," and no doubt there are many that are really poor by reason of misfortunes, and some, also, (from a shiftless management,) deserve to be poor, because they abuse their blessings.

There are hundreds of farmers that are ever speaking of "hard times," "of low prices of grain," of the "ruin of the farmers," that there is "no money," etc., and it is a notorious fact, they do not have money, but run in debt for every necessary of life, go miserably dressed themselves and children in many cases wanting the comforts of life, the wife, even, never touching a dime of money, suffering for many needed and deserved comforts, and yet "No Money in the House!"

We have seen their daughters going barefoot, and yet with all these signs of poverty, the same farmer would have 500, 1000, 1500, perhaps 2000 bags of wheat in the granary, "waiting a rise!" while his family and himself wanted the comforts and necessaries of life. The wife, too, who has toiled all the season, often beyond her strength, hoping harvest time would bring comfort and ease, dies! poor woman! the "Grain is not sold," and you and the storekeeper must wait, children go barefoot, the smile leaving your brow, and probably some creditor, tired of waiting, will, Shylock like, strip the farm and homestead, and leave you all the cold pity of an unfeeling world. And this because of that shiftless, miserable, wicked plan of holding on to the crop, which should always be sold to pay the debts incurred while maturing it.

If our farmers would adopt the Cash System, and buy and sell only for cash, they would find that in a little time joy would be in the household, and their own joy would prove to them that they had found Aladdin's Lamp.—Exchange

DR. L. J. CZAPKAY'S

Private Medical & Surgical Institute,

SACRAMENTO STREET, BELOW MONTGOMERY,
Opposite Pacific Mail Steamship Company's Office, San Francisco.

ESTABLISHED IN 1854 FOR THE PERMANENT cure of all Chronic and Private Diseases, and the SUPPRESSION OF QUACKERY. Attending and Resident Physician L. J. CZAPKAY M. D. late in the Hungarian Revolutionary War, Chief Physician to the 20th Regiment of Honveds, Chief Surgeon to the Military Hospital of Pesth, Hungary, the late lecturer on Diseases of the Urinary Organs and Diseases of Women and Children, and Honorary Member of the Philadelphia College of Medicine.

[illegible] attention paid to the treatment of diseases peculiar to Women and Children.

Office Hours—From 9 A. M. to 8 P. M.

Communications strictly confidential. Permanent cure guaranteed or no pay. Consultations by letter or otherwise FREE.

Address, DR. L. J. CZAPKAY, San Francisco.

Of all diseases the first great cause,
Springs from neglect of Nature's laws.

To the Afflicted!

Suffer not when a cure is guaranteed in all stages of secret diseases—Self Abuse, Nervous Debility, Syphilis in all its stages, Strictures, Gleet, Gravel, Diabetes, diseases of the Kidneys and Bladder, Mercurial Rheumatism, Scrofula, Pains in the Bones and Ankles, diseases of the Lungs, Throat, Nose and Eyes, Ulcers upon the Body or Limbs, Cancers, Dropsy, Epileptic Fits, St. Vitus Dance, and all diseases arising from a derangement of the sexual organs—such as Nervous Trembling, Loss of Memory, Loss of Power, General Weakness, Dimness of Vision with peculiar spots appearing before the eyes, Loss of Sight, Wakefulness, Dyspepsia, Liver Diseases, Eruptions upon the Face, Pains in the Back and Head, Female Irregularities—and all improper discharges of both sexes. It matters not from what cause the disease originated, however long standing or obstinate the case, recovery is certain, and in a shorter time than a permanent cure can be effected by any other treatment, even after the disease has baffled the skill of eminent physicians and resisted all their means of cure. The medicines prescribed are pleasant without odor, entirely vegetable, causing no sickness and free from mercury or balsam. During [illegible] years of practice in Europe, the Atlantic States and California, I have rescued from the jaws of death many thousands who in the last stages of the above mentioned diseases had been given up to die by their physicians, which warrants me in promising to the afflicted, who may place themselves under my care, a speedy and permanent cure. Private diseases are the greatest enemies to health, as they are the first cause of consumption, scrofula, and many other diseases, and should be a terror to the human family. A permanent cure is scarcely ever effected—a majority of cases falling into the hands of incompetent persons, who not only fail to cure the disease but ruin the constitution, filling the system with mercury, which, with the disease, hastens the sufferer into a rapid consumption. But should the disease and the treatment not cause death speedily, and the victim marry, the disease is entailed upon the children, who are born with feeble constitutions, and the current of life corrupted by a virus which betrays itself in scrofula, tetter, ulcers, eruptions and other affections of the skin, eyes, throat and lungs, entailing upon them a brief existence of suffering, and consigning them to an early grave.

Self-abuse is another formidable enemy to health, for nothing else in the dread catalogue of human diseases causes so destructive a drain upon the system—drawing its thousands of victims through a few years of suffering down to an untimely grave. It destroys the nervous system, rapidly wastes away the energies of life, causes mental derangement, prevents the proper development of the system, disqualifies for marriage, society, business and all earthly happiness, and leaves the sufferer wrecked in body and mind, predisposed to consumption and a train of evils more to be dreaded than death itself. With the fullest confidence I assure the unfortunate victims of self-abuse that a permanent and speedy cure can be effected, and with the abandonment of ruinous practices, my patients can be restored to robust, vigorous health.

Irregularities, and all diseases of males and females treated on principles established by fifteen years of practice and sanctioned by thousands of the most remarkable cures.—Medicines with full directions sent to any part of the State of Oregon and Washington Territory by patients communicating their symptoms by letter.

All business correspondence strictly confidential. Address DR. L. J. CZAPKAY Medical Institute Sacramento street, below Montgomery, opposite Pacific Mail Steamship Co's Office, San Francisco.

Remarkable Instance of Medical Relief

Below we publish the certificates of three of the sufferors from the pangs of [illegible] having recovered their former health, and impelled by gratitude, make known their cases and remedial agent, and their statements are authenticated by a Notary Public. The demands of society imperiously command their publicity, and we commend them to the attention of all afflicted.

Certificate.—The undersigned, desirous of acquainting those who may be unfortunate enough to be similarly afflicted where a permanent relief [illegible] may be obtained, feels it his duty to thus publicly express his most sincere gratitude to Dr L. J. Czapkay for the permanent recovery of his health. Borne down by the distressing symptoms [illegible] I was depressed in body and mind, unable to perform [illegible] trifling [illegible] upon the ordinary avocations of life. I sought the aid of many physicians, who at first regarded my disease as of trifling importance—but alas, after a few weeks and in several instances months of their treatment I found to my utter [illegible] that instead of relief my symptoms became more alarming [illegible] torture, and being told by one that my disease being principally confined to the brain, medicine would be of little consequence. I despaired of ever regaining my health, strength and energy, and as a last resort and with but a faint hope called upon Dr Czapkay, who, after examining my case, prescribed some medicine which almost instantly relieved me of the dull pain and dizziness in my head. [illegible] I resolved to place myself immediately under his care, and by a strict obedience to all his directions and advice my head became clear and my ideas collected, the constant pain in my back and [illegible] the weakness of my limbs, the nervous reaction of my whole body on the slightest alarm or excitement, the misanthropy and evil forebodings, the self distrust and want of confidence [illegible] and the frightful dreams at night [illegible] have all disappeared, and in fact I [illegible] a new life [illegible]. With the view to guard the unfortunate from falling into the hands of [illegible] I [illegible] to offer this testimony [illegible] and skill of Dr Czapkay [illegible] assured by my own experience [illegible] a permanent cure will be effected.

B. F. HILMER

State of California, County of San Francisco.
Subscribed and sworn to before me this seventh day of April A. D. 1856. Seal.
[L. S.] JOHN MIDDLETON Notary Public.

MARYSVILLE Jan 31 1855

Dr L. J. CZAPKAY San Francisco—Sir: I have used the last of your medicine and do not think I shall need any more [illegible] I have not got my strength yet, but soon will [illegible] It is just three weeks [illegible] since I called at your institute [illegible] I thought [illegible] entirely and never thought you would be able to cure me perfectly [illegible] to do something [illegible] and strength [illegible] so that I would not get excited and tremble over everything. [illegible] you know what I expected, you may judge [illegible] symptoms and the removal of those sores and blotches from my skin and the ulcers from my throat and the enlargement of the glands which you said were principally the cause of all my sickness. I can hardly tell you which is the greatest, my joy or my surprise [illegible] got my strength [illegible]

Enclosed I send you twenty dollars for your charges and think myself [illegible] cured. If you think anybody will be benefitted [illegible] you may put this letter in the newspapers. Believe me gratefully yours, THOMAS HAYDEN

Thankfulness is the incentive to gratitude.

[illegible]—Prompted by an honest dread of my heart, I [illegible] before the public a case which [illegible] is not only as an act of scientific skill but that of humanity. About two years ago I suddenly, and from causes unknown to me, was seized with a fit of epilepsy, which, owing to my inability to meet the expenses consequent upon a thorough medical treatment, and the discouragement which I met with on attempting it, soon became such (I was then led to believe) as to defy the skill of any physician. I was frequently while in pursuit of my calling thrown down to the ground without the slightest warning, until although incurable to the agonies, I yet despised the miseries of my life, and soon learned to look upon those who would lend me assistance or shelter me from danger as enemies who sought to prolong the existence of my miseries. While in this state and having previous to my affliction [illegible] I once more was induced to attempt seeking aid of a physician, and by recommendation called upon Dr L. J. Czapkay. I told him of my circumstances, and [illegible] to reward him for his services, regardless [illegible] however he at once undertook my case, and with the blessing of God I was once more restored to perfect health. Unable to reward him for the boon which I enjoy at present and yet conscious of my indebtedness, I consider it due to myself and all afflicted, to make the [illegible] public, in order that those in need of medical advice may find a physician in whom every confidence can be placed.
